

PROFESSIONAL BIOGRAPHY

CASPER KLYNGE

2013	Ambassador of Denmark to the Republic of Cyprus, Nicosia
2012-2013	Deputy Head of Department for Africa, Royal Danish Ministry of Foreign Affairs
2011-2012	Deputy Director, Stabilization, Fragile States and Afghanistan, Royal Danish Ministry of Foreign Affairs
2010-2011	Danish Senior Civilian Representative (SCR) for Southern Afghanistan / Deputy Head of the multinational Helmand Provincial Reconstruction Team, Lashkar Gah, Helmand Province, Afghanistan
2009	Marshall Memorial Fellowship studies, German Marshall Fund, USA
2009-2010	Deputy Head of Department for Security, Royal Danish Ministry of Foreign Affairs
2008-2009	Head of Secretariat, the Africa Commission, Royal Danish Ministry of Foreign Affairs
2006-2008	Head of Mission, EU Planning Team for Kosovo (EUPT), European Union, Pristina, Kosovo
2003-2006	Political Advisor, Civilian Crisis Management, General Secretariat of the Council of Ministers of the European Union, Brussels, Belgium
2003	Head of Section, European Union Joint Situation Center (SITCEN), General Secretariat of the Council of Ministers of the European Union, Brussels, Belgium
2002	Head of Section, Department for Russia, CIS, OSCE and the Western Balkans, Royal Danish Ministry of Foreign Affairs
2001	Research Associate, Danish Institute of International Affairs.
2001	Lecturer in International Relations Theory, Royal Danish Defense College
1999	Production manager, the Danish Refugee Council
1994-2004	Active member of the Reserve in the Danish Armed Force.
1992-1994	Danish Armed Forces.

Mr. Klynge holds a Masters degree in Political Science (International Relations) from Copenhagen University (2002) and he is a 2009 European Marshall Memorial Fellow. He is married and the father of two sons.